NCR RealPOS 72XRT to be installed at 6,000 Exchange locations worldwide, supported by NCR Services

DULUTH, Ga.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 13, 2015-- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR), the global leader in consumer transaction technologies, announced today that the Army and Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES) will replace 6,000 point-of-sale terminals with NCR RealPOS™ 72XRT systems. The new technology will replace non-NCR terminals in both its retail and food services locations, and will be maintained globally by NCR Services.

The Exchange provides quality goods and service at comparatively low prices to American armed forces families. It operates more than 3,100 facilities worldwide, in more than 30 countries, five U.S. territories and 50 states. The RealPOS 72XRT is one of NCR's most widely deployed and reliable POS systems. Built with Intel® processors inside and featuring Intel Active Management Technology, the 72XRT provides more intelligent processing power to drive new applications, remote manageability and enhanced security to deliver value for the Exchange.

"The Army and Air Force Exchange Service needed a flexible and dependable solution to deliver its high levels of customer service worldwide," said Stan Ratcliffe, President, NCR Government Systems, LLC. "We are pleased to be working closely with them as they enhance their store experience to families on location worldwide."

Featuring the innovative EZ-Glide Blade System, the RealPOS 72XRT provides tool-free access to components, enabling fast and easy service and upgrades. The RealPOS 72XRT provides access to system health with advanced remote management capabilities to help reduce downtime and lower support costs.

About Army and Air Force Exchange Service

The Army & Air Force Exchange Service goes where Soldiers, Airmen and their families go to improve the quality of their lives through goods and services provided. Exchange earnings provide dividends to support military morale, welfare and recreation programs. The Exchange is part of the Department of Defense and is directed by a Board of Directors, responsible to the Secretaries of the Army and Air Force through the Chiefs of Staff.
